Exhibition Text

Child is a print created to demonstrate the purity of a newborn. Newborns are babies that just came out of their mothers womb after a journey of a duration of nine months. The purity of a newborn is that they are new to the world, their world is black and white and are yet to discover color. Color can mean anything like people, experiences, nature, etc. A newborn has no knowledge, besides knowing by instinct to eat, cry and digest. Newborns are pure and this is a visual representation of them.
