

Elephants On Top of The World and The Life of The Elephants

Block Print and Dry Point

38 cm x 55 cm

Exhibition Text

The Elephants On Top of The World and The Life of The Elephants represents the cruelty elephants have to go through and how good change can be to them. Elephants are near extinction due to mistreatment in circuses and the killing for their tusks. This piece depicts the mother elephant on top of the world, suffering. While her dead child is following her. The other picture demonstrates how changing our way of life, can change theirs. This art piece was created to encourage elephant awareness.