Exhibition Text

Familia is a visual representation of who my family and I are in different self portraits. It's called Familia and it's a baroque painting, inspired by the movement itself. It was inspired by Vermeer and Rembrandt, whose paintings are mostly baroque. This painting demonstrates how the world has affected me and my family. The first painting is who I am, the second one is who my family is and the third painting is how I will have a family of my own, eventually.
