

Recuerdanos

Ephemera

71 x 56 cm

Exhibition Text

This art piece represents the voices of all races, genders and people who have been offended or harassed by Donald Trump and his supporters. Recuerdanos is a Spanish word; it translates to remember us. I was inspired by Donald Trump and his cruelty towards other people that are not in his race. My artistic inspiration, however was Andy Goldsworthy. I developed new skills using this medium, and I incorporated new techniques that Goldsworthy used.
